

Lynchburg's City Liquor Ordinance Declared Invalid

Mapp Act Written Into City Statutes Declared to Be Unconstitutional by Judge Christian — Danville Also Has Such a Law.

LYNCHBURG, Jan. 4.—According to a decision handed down by Judge Frank P. Christian in Corporation Court the city prohibition act, running parallel to the Mapp prohibition enforcement act, is invalid. Judge Christian found the act void because the city is limited by its charter in the penalties that it may inflict, and being unable to inflict penalties as severe as those provided by the State law, any city act must be held as in conflict with the State act, and therefore unconstitutional.

The present city act provides for penalties equal in severity to those provided by the State act, and is therefore unconstitutional on that count alone, as the city exceeded the powers granted in its charter enacting the ordinance.

The judge preceded the rendering of his decision in the test case, which was brought by Fred Jamerson, charged with violation of the city prohibition law, by a succinct lecture on law enforcement and the responsibility of the citizen in the matter of backing up courts and police officers in apprehending and securing convictions against those known to be violators of the law. He said:

"Law isn't enforced because people won't give evidence. It is grand jury on law enforcement. It is grand jury on law enforcement." (Continued on Page Five.)

Second Nicholas Charge Is Dropped

Mike Nicholas, who was on Tuesday evening convicted of an attempted criminal attack on Miss Minnie Ruder, will not be tried for shooting the girl. The State has taken a nolle prosequi in the case as was intimated might be the case yesterday. The commonwealth's attorney, however, agreed to abstain from pushing the second charge against the Greek after he had secured an understanding by counsel for the defense that no appeal would be taken from the three-year term imposed for the alleged attack. The appeal was withdrawn yesterday evening and Nicholas was brought out of jail and sentenced to serve his term. He is now ready to be taken to the State institution to begin it.

The Corporation Court was engaged today in trying the few cases which remain to be heard. There are some Mapp act cases and larceny charges to be disposed of as well as some cases appealed from the lower court. It is expected that court will adjourn before the end of the week.

Negro Facing Bad Charge Shot From Ambush In Shoulder

Sol Douglas, a negro who was arrested near Schoolfield on Christmas night, after it is alleged, he had attempted a criminal attack on Mrs. Percy Sigman, was seriously wounded a few nights ago when he was shot from ambush. Douglas was held for the grand jury of the circumstances in the case were such that Magistrate R. S. Pitts allowed a bail bond of $500 which was later given by the accused and who was consequently released from jail to await inquiry by the Pittsylvania grand jury. Douglas was walking near his home, it is alleged when he was shot by some person unknown who was in hiding. The bullet struck him in the shoulder and penetrated the joint shattering the shoulder blade. He was taken to a hospital where the injury was treated. He was discharged but has since been taken back as the injury has proved to be more complicated than was at first thought. It is said that Douglas may not fully recover the use of the arm. The negro is said to have definite information as to who shot him but from last reports he had not revealed the name to the county authorities.

Plucking Board Upheld By Court

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The "Honorable and Faithful Board," otherwise known as the "Plucking Board," which operates at the direction of the secretary of war under the army reorganization act in weeding out army officers who have become "misfits" or disabled for either retirement or discharge, was upheld yesterday by the District of Columbia Court of Appeals with regard to findings by which the board discharged Col. William C. Cressy.

The appellate court's decision serves to make the "Honorable and Faithful Board" a final court of appeals for army officers who are dissatisfied with the findings of the board. The board's findings are final unless the officers choose to appeal directly to the President, a course which the appellate court now declares is the only way in which relief can be had.

In its lengthy decision, the appellate court recognized the fact that no court can interfere with the administrative functions of the President in his capacity as commander in chief of the army of the United States, and states plainly that it is not at all necessary for the President to review the work of the "Honorable and Faithful Board," unless he pleases. Moreover, the court held, the President can delegate any of his administrative functions to the board, and the board's findings are final unless the officers choose to appeal directly to the President, a course which the appellate court now declares is the only way in which relief can be had.

Three Smallpox Cases In City

City Health Officer R. W. Garnett today reported three cases of smallpox among adults. All of the cases are in the northside. One of them is in the vicinity of Washington street on the outskirts of the city, another is on Henry and the third on Moffett streets. Dr. Garnett reports that all of the cases are so mild that the patients are not confined to their beds but are held in quarantine in their homes, cards having been placed on the houses to give warning of the disease.

With the announcement, Dr. Garnett emphasized the necessity of vaccination by adults, stating that this is the only known preventive measure and one which will prevent contraction of the disease.

The State law requires that all city school children shall be vaccinated and because this has been thoroughly done among the children there is small danger of the malady spreading among the children. Dr. Garnett said he said he said the next week or further that the city nurses would begin going through the schools examining the children for vaccination marks. This is usually done at this time of year when small-pox is most prevalent.

(Special to The Bee.)
MARTINSVILLE, Va., Jan. 5.—Robert Barker, accused of shooting his cousin, David Barker, was arrested near Roxwood last night and was put in jail here today. The condition of the injured man continues to improve.

David Barker today gave out a statement relative to the shooting, the first which has been given by any of the principals in the case. Barker said that on Tuesday night Robert Barker appeared at his house and said that he had come to kill David Barker's brother. "I persuaded him to go home, seeing that he was drinking, although he was not drunk. He then called me out into the yard and I asked him not to have any trouble. Robert Barker then told me 'I'll kill you' and as I turned to go into the house he shot me the ball lodging below my collarbone. I then fell down and he shot me again on the head, the ball entering my thigh above the knee."

Both of the bullets have been extracted and Barker is considered to be out of danger.

Luther Gravelley, a negro, was convicted of killing Robert Hairston, also called Barker, and he shot the two men were attending a corn shucking party near Lexington about six weeks ago when the two engaged in a quarrel which had a tragic sequel. Gravelley seized a shotgun and blew away a portion of the other negro's head.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 4.—"One year in jail, and the only reason I'm not giving you a stiffer sentence is because one year is a legal limit. Eagle Seizes Bird Killed by Hunter

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., Jan. 4.—Captain Tom Hayman, one of the old huntmen and gunners, of this city, while down the river on Monday in quest of game, shot a bird in the marsh at Shantille Bay. The bird, called to the ground, was seized by a hungry bald eagle that was evidently waiting close by in quest of game for its own consumption. The sight of the eagle, though, didn't interfere with Captain Hayman's aim, and he pulled on the trigger, and down came the eagle bird and all. When measured, the eagle proved to be seven feet from tip to tip, and weighed about twenty pounds. The bird is on exhibition at Hitchcock's and Jackson's store in Poundexter street.

Stork Busy Bird In Danville 1920

A summary of the vital statistics for Danville, showing the number of deaths and births in the city during the year just closed is being compiled by the city health officer. These figures show that during 1920 there were 341 deaths in Danville and 638 births. The number of deaths was larger than that during the year 1919 when 324 were officially recorded. The number of births, however, shows a substantial increase, of 71, more than in 1919 when 567 persons were born. Dr. Garnett believes that the better systematization in recording all of the births is responsible for the increase, also the increase in population in Danville during the year.

An analysis of the deaths shows that 122 white males perished, 129 white females, 59 colored males and 31 colored females. Heart diseases caused the death of 35 people and pneumonia 26, tuberculosis 21 (three more than in the previous year), apoplexy 25, while the deaths by violence numbered 11.

In the year just passed 255 white male children were born, 242 white females, 72 colored males and 59 colored females.

No Drop In Prices On Good Tobaccos

While the sale of tobacco have been very light since the Danville market resumed on Tuesday after the Christmas holidays there has been no drop in the prices of the various grades of leaf which are in demand. One of the Danville warehousemen this morning said that the prices were excellent, excepting those inferior grades which have been a drug on the market since the opening of the season. He expects a drop in prices after Christmas and that is one factor in the annual annual Christmas rush which is an effort to sell as many cigars as possible before the anticipated drop. This year it seems there has been no subsidence of prices on desirable grades.

What little tobacco is in the hands of the farmers will be sold in leisurely fashion between now and the close of the season.

No Autos Sold Here Under Mapp Act

At the trial of a recent liquor case, the question was raised as to the number of cars confiscated by the State under the Mapp Act and the proceeds turned over to the State treasury. Under a prohibition law it is an offense to sell liquor in an automobile. The cars belonging to the persons arrested with it is automatically seized and, in the event of a conviction should be sold.

City Sergeant P. H. Boisseau said today that no cars have been sold under the law, although many have been turned over to him through the usual processes of the law. However, the city sergeant cannot sell seized automobiles unless the court issues an order and in every case so far as he knows, it has been found that the automobiles did not belong to the persons arrested and therefore could not be taken in possession. In many of the cases prior to the new law, the men supposed to own them were able to show that they belonged to other people.

Probable That Treaty Will Be Accepted By Small Majority.

DUBLIN, Jan. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—Eamon De Valera, when the Dail Eireann rose this evening, produced for the first time publicly his alternative proposals to the Irish treaty. A fortnight ago he was asked by Arthur Griffith to publish them, and Mr. Griffith repeated his challenge at today's debate.

Mr. De Valera's original idea, as announced by himself, was to move his alternative proposals in the event of rejection of the treaty. But, he changed his mind, and now intends, if he is permitted, to move them as an amendment to the resolution approving the treaty.

The document whose secrecy has been carefully guarded, except for obscure hints by Dail members who saw it in the private sessions, was issued to the press, accompanied by an appeal by Mr. De Valera in a manifesto, addressed to the Irish people, urging them not to be stampeded in the support of the treaty which would not bring peace.

The document as issued differs, according to Mr. Griffith from the document submitted in the private sessions of the Dail Eireann. It follows the main outline of the treaty made at the Downing street residence of the British Prime Minister, but it differs in many particulars. It is derived through the King.

Mr. De Valera's plan contains no oath of allegiance, but admits recognition of his Britannic Majesty as head of the association of states in the British Commonwealth, whereas Ireland externally associates itself.

The debate today revealed the presence of at least three parties in the Dail Eireann—the supporters of the treaty made in London, the supporters of Mr. De Valera, and his opponents. Vigorous speeches were made for and against the treaty but at the conclusion of the session there was no indication of any change in the sentiment of the members, and the informed opinion continues to incline to the belief that the treaty will be approved by a small majority.

The session adjourned until eleven o'clock tomorrow morning when the proceedings are expected to take the form of a discussion on the rules of the Dail to determine whether Mr. De Valera can move his proposals as an amendment or must wait until the Dail Eireann has given a direct vote on the treaty.

MRS. ELIZABETH TYLER RESIGNS

MRS. ELIZABETH TYLER AND (ABOVE) EDWARD YOUNG CLARKE AND (BELOW) WILLIAM J. SIMMONS, LEADERS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 4.—Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler, Atlanta, tonight announced her resignation as assistant to E. Y. Clarke, Imperial Klansman and head of the propagation department of the Ku Klux Klan.

Mrs. Tyler, in a written communication addressed to members of the order, stated that her resignation was to take effect immediately and that it was due to the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Doris Manning Jett, who is suffering from tuberculosis. "My physician, Dr. Henry McGhee says I must rest or completely collapse," she wrote.

Edward Motley is Painfully Injured In Auto Accident

Edward Motley, driver of a delivery truck for Arnstein's cleaning and pressing establishment, lies in the General hospital suffering from painful injuries sustained yesterday afternoon in an accident which occurred on Main street in front of Mount Vernon church. Although bruised, up considerably about the upper part of the body and head, the youth's condition is not regarded as serious. It had not been determined last night whether there were any internal injuries. No broken bones were suspected.

Just how the accident occurred is not clear. The youth last night was not in condition to talk. Eyewitnesses say that the driver was going up Main street, towards the church, at a rate of 35 miles an hour or more. When he reached the point at the upper end of the plot of ground in front of the church he attempted to turn his car to the left and drive back to town. Another car was approaching from West Main. It seems that the youth in his effort to prevent a collision, swerved his machine more sharply than he would have done otherwise, and going at the terrific rate of speed he was, the sudden turn threw the machine over on the side onto the hedge surrounding the plot. Young Motley was picked up and rushed to the hospital for treatment. The truck was badly damaged. The side was smashed in and the fenders buckled and machinists had to tow it into town for repairs.

ROTARY CLUB BOYS' WORK ACTIVITIES

Plumer Wiseman, president of the Danville Rotary club attended the luncheon of Lynchburg Rotarians on Tuesday and in a talk to the fifteen told of the entertainment by the Danville men a week before of a group of boys, and of the enjoyment by the club and its guests of the presence of these lads.

This is the first step taken by the Danville Rotarians in the direction of helping and influencing the boys of this city. It is true the club last summer, after many delays in inaugurating such work, decided to raise a sum of money and employ a boys' work secretary who would work in conjunction with the Rotary Club and the Y. M. C. A. boys' department. After some further delay, such a secretary was secured, but he has recently resigned and left the city. The action of the club is construed by some of its members as indicating that it will undertake some definite and helpful work among the boys on its own initiative, instead of delegating it to an employed individual, thereby deriving the benefit to the Rotarians which would be involved in inaugurating and maintaining such activities.

One of the definite aims of the Rotarians in their work among boys will be to encourage as many as possible to continue their education at least through the public high school and the better equipped themselves for life. The club has addressed the pupils of the several white schools of the city, and a start has thus been made.

The theory of the new line of work is to bring a number of boys into acquaintance and association with the Rotarians and by association with them at luncheons or on hikes or outings to improve the acquaintance and acquire an influence over the lads. No selected set of boys will be made the object of Rotary interest. Its motto is "He profits who serves best."

Light Wines And Beer to Be Urged

Anti-Prohibitionists Will Make Plea to Ways and Means Committee at An Early Date.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Prominent persons opposed to nation-wide prohibition and in favor of light wines and beer will present briefs to the Ways and Means committee of the Congress tomorrow to show that it is impossible to enforce the present dry laws and that the government is losing nearly $1,000,000,000 in taxes annually by the illicit manufacture and sale of liquors.

A determined campaign will be made to have Congress modify the Volstead act so as to permit the making and distribution of beer containing at least two per cent. alcohol in order to satisfy the thirst for a drink while it is legal, but at the same time not intoxicating.

The very fact that members of the Ways and Means committee have consented to hear the side of the anti-prohibitionists is taken here as an indication of soundness and fairness on the part of congressmen. It would be a far cry if the prohibition question settled.

The feeling that it is impossible to enforce the extreme laws forced through Congress by the Anti-Saloon league and similar organizations is gradually taking a hold on open-minded members of the House and Senate. No one is so optimistic as to believe that the Volstead act can be changed in a fortnight, but there are indications that congressmen who voted for the present drastic law would welcome modification that would allow non-intoxicating beer and wine to be put upon the market.

Secretary Mellon will make no formal recommendation for an amendment to the Volstead act to eliminate the provision prohibiting the manufacture and sale of beer containing more than one-half (1/2) per cent. but he frankly tells influential members of the House and Senate that he believes permission to make and dispose of light wines and beer would help to enforce the prohibition laws. At the same time he estimates that from the people is closest to $100,000,000 and is in store for soft beverages.

"Is the duty of the grand jury to find evidence in indictments," he continued, "and the duty of courts to try cases?"

"It is the duty of every citizen to investigate and report law violations," he said, "but it is also his duty to protect his fellow man from oppression because of fanaticism or other causes."

"The majority can be as criminal as the minority," he said, "and cannot afford to be unjust, even though there should be a great urge among the public to do so, said the court, adding that anonymous letters from pious persons asking for the conviction of a man known to be a bootlegger."

"All the machinery of government is at the back of the grand jury in which is invested the responsibility of finding evidence against a citizen," said the court, later saying that if it was the desire of the jury and citizens to have a first of the year clean up, the court favored such a clean sweep reform.

"It costs them nothing," he said in speaking of the duty of citizens, "and if they will not give as evidence what they say on the streets the law enforcement powers will be left to the bootleggers."

FRENCH-BRITISH ALLIANCE LOOMS AT CANNES MEET

CANNES, Jan. 4.—(By The Associated Press.)—With the air full of talk of an alliance between France and Great Britain as the only means of keeping the entente intact, Premier Briand and Prime Minister Lloyd George today resumed their conversations which were begun some days ago in London.

The conversations are continuing.

was the only comment the French premier would make after a three hours' talk with Mr. Lloyd George last afternoon.

General reticence is being observed by the principals of the British delegation to the eve of the opening of the allied supreme council meeting regarding such an alliance.

Premier Briand said before the British prime minister's visit that it might be putting rather strongly to talk of a formal alliance. Yet he said, the policy of France all along had been to strengthen her ties with the war allies, hence this seemed essential to a settlement of European problems.

Members of both the French and British delegations are agreed that the situation is grave and that the entente powers must come closer together or the world will drift more widely apart. The difference of opinion appears to center around the question of what ought to make the concessions necessary to bring about closer accord. The atmosphere throughout the day was generally pessimistic.

Premier Bonomi of Italy, arrived on the scene late last afternoon and expected to see Premier Briand and Lloyd George during the evening.

The public generally, according to the report coming to Washington is very much dissatisfied with present conditions growing out of the nationwide restrictions on the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. Many persons are receiving letters demanding that something be done to break up the liquor traffic which has grown up under cover to supply the demand for strong drink.

The prohibition unit of the treasury department is preparing to demand at least $30,000,000 in the next fiscal year. It is believed that before the year is over that sum will be increased several million dollars, if the present campaign is carried out.

Yates' Store Broken Into Last Night

The grocery store of Yates Bros., on South Main street extension, located just beyond the Tivy Bridge, was broken into this morning, during the last night. An adjoining salaried pressing club was also broken open and two suits of clothes and a coat stolen.

So far the grocery store has been passed on by the thieves, but a pair of overalls and a shirt were taken. It seems that the thief became frightened in some way, for on the floor of the store was found a quantity of grocery goods, already fixed up in cloth sacks ready to be taken away. Entrance to the two stores was made through the rear. The door of the pressing club was broken open while the transaction of the grocery store was prized

'TRAGEDY CHILD' LOSES COUNTRY; FORCED IN TO TITLE SHE HATES

SENECA, Kas., Jan. 5.—This is the story of a "poor little rich girl" in real life—the résumé of the seven-year drama that has had to do with Mary de Mumm—and the last "act" that robs her of the friends and the country she loves.

Mary was born in the de Mumm chateau, near Rheims, France, just prior to the outbreak of the World War—the daughter of Baron Walter de Mumm, world famous champagne maker, sportsman and German soldier and Frances Scoville, Kansas beauty and daughter of a former Seneca banker.

The night before the first clash between French and German soldiers, de Mumm and his wife and child escaped from France. Mother and child went to live with the baron's people in Germany.

Life was unbearable and they moved to Switzerland.

When America entered the war the Baroness de Mumm instigated separation proceedings against her German husband who was winning laurels in the Kaiser's aviation service.

The French government, in the meantime, seized the de Mumm estate. At the close of the war Mme. de Mumm returned to America and brought her child to her parents in Seneca.

Then an act of Congress restored to the Baroness her American citizenship and she went abroad to fight, in the French courts for her share of the property belonging to her husband.

Before plans could be carried out she died in Paris, and her body was returned to Seneca for burial.

Banker Scoville, the grandfather, then threw his money into a fight for the guardianship of the child.

He went to Washington in that connection and suffered a nervous breakdown.

Just before Christmas word came to the bedside that the child had returned little Mary to her father.

Governor Sproul Will Not Resign To Get Senatorship

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—Governor William C. Sproul tonight announced that he would not resign to take the senatorship made vacant by the death of Senator Boies Penrose.

"If I should ever desire to go to the United States Senate," said the governor, "I shall submit my candidacy to the people of the state in the regular way—through the processes of nomination and election."

"In due time I shall name a successor to Senator Penrose who will, I hope, commend himself to the state and the country, in the present emergency," Governor Sproul stated.

"I should have made this statement earlier had I not desired to avoid discussion of the subject until after Senator Penrose's funeral."

Asked whether he had the man in mind who he would appoint to the vacancy, Governor Sproul said he had, and added that he would be a "seat warmer," but would be qualified in every way to fill the office of United States senator.

The governor said he expected to visit Senator Clegg, who is in a Pittsburgh hospital, and that he may not make an announcement before Saturday or next week.

The senator that Governor Sproul will appoint will serve until the candidate to be chosen at the November election is ready to qualify.

While the governor would go no farther with regard to his candidacy than indicated in his statement, political leaders were generally of the opinion that the governor would become a candidate for the unexpired Penrose term.

The governor's term expires in January next year.

16-Ounce Loaf Is Back to Nickel In New York City

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The sixteen-ounce loaf of bread got back to the pre-war price of 5 cents yesterday; more than that, those who have lowered the price say that cheap bread has come back to stay, because it can be sold at 5 cents at a fair profit. The cut in price was made by H. H. Macy & Co. Beginning today, the firm will sell the pound loaf at 5 cents, a drop of 2 cents. James Gould, advertising manager for the firm, said that the 5-cent rate applied to the "spring wheat flour" loaf and to the sweet rye and the sour rye bread.

The downward price trend, he said, had followed the drop in the cost of production. The pound loaf cost 3 cents in 1914 when the world war began. In 1920 it had advanced to 10 cents. About last April it dropped to 7 cents. The cut by H. H. Macy & Co. came after the action of the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, which yesterday reduced its 14-ounce loaf to 5 cents.

A cut in bread prices was announced also by J. M. Butler, Inc., stores. The company said the cut of one cent, from the cut loaf, was made possible by the action of the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, which yesterday reduced its 14-ounce loaf to 5 cents.

"A reduction in the price of bread has been pending," said a representative of Butler Stores. "It was made possible by the lower costs of flour, labor and general costs of production."

Edwin J. O'Malley, commissioner of markets, announced that as a result of conferences between the Master Bakers' Association and the various localities of the bakers' union the price of 16-ounce bread, on the east side, will be cut immediately from 9 to 7 cents a pound. The commissioner said it would be impossible to bring this price down further.

Because, being produced by hand, the costs of production, especially labor, are lower than in machine-made bread.

BOOKMAKERS ARRESTED

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 4.—At the end of today's racing events at the Fair Grounds track, four bookmakers and their associates were ordered to report to the sheriff's office on warrants issued by District Attorney Marr, charging violations of the Locke anti-gambling law. Bond was fixed in each case at $250.

Burial Permit For Boies Penrose

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—Permit for the burial tomorrow of Boies Penrose, late United States senator from Pennsylvania, was issued late today by the bureau of vital statistics. No announcement of the hour of the funeral was made by members of the family.

The great brick house in Spruce street, where the national and state political figures were wont to gather, was deserted today. In a parlor on the first floor the body of Senator Penrose lay unattended in a plain oak and metal coffin. No one has been permitted to enter the room—since the body was brought here from Washington Sunday—not even the senator's personal friends and servants who had been with his family for years.

Issuance of the permit led to the belief that Senator Penrose will be buried in South Laurel Hill cemetery beside his father.

Beyond the simple announcement in the obituary columns of the newspaper that the funeral and interment would be "strictly private," nothing has come from the late senator's brothers or other relatives regarding funeral arrangements. It is understood the family regards the funeral as strictly private matter, notwithstanding the senator's great political prominence.

It is known Senator Penrose often expressed the desire that privacy attend his funeral. Privacy in funeral arrangements has been the custom in the Penrose family for many years. The father of the late senator having been buried in the presence only of members of his immediate family.

It was learned tonight that the grave was made ready today to receive the body.

August Belmont Thrown By Horse Slightly Injured

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—August Belmont, New York financier, was reported to have been taken in a private ambulance to his Park Avenue home after he arrived at Pennsylvania Station late today in his private car. He was returning from the South and was said to have been injured in a fall from a horse. His office declined to comment on the report.

Later it was stated at Mr. Belmont's home that his injuries consisted of a strained back and bruises, which were painful but not serious. His physicians expect he would be out in a few days.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—As a result of injuries sustained a few days ago when thrown from a horse on his estate near Garnett, S. C., August Belmont, New York financier, was transferred to an ambulance and taken to his home when his private car arrived here from the South today.

It was said at Mr. Belmont's home tonight that his injuries, which consisted of a strained back, as well as severe bruises, were not serious, and that he was expected to be at his office in a few days.

It was explained that Mr. Belmont was injured while shooting from the saddle. He is an excellent horseman but was thrown violently when his mount came suddenly upon a blind ditch and instinctively leaped, throwing the rider, who is sixty-nine years old, on his back.

THE VEIL ENHANCES MILADY'S BEAUTY

BY MARIAN HALE

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Time was when veils were simply veils—plain, matched things, with a very plainly defined duty, which they went about rather severely.

But the modern version of the veil! A thing of romance, charm, mystery! A bit of lace skillfully woven, skilfully draped to enhance charm and subtly suggest beauties half concealed!

The Maria Guy veil, above, a go-samer thing, little more than a web with a delicate tracery of figures in the border, is gathered about the crown and falls gracefully irregular.

Beginning —OF THE— Disarmament Controversy

The origin of this discussion, now of world-wide interest and still unsolved by the Conference at Washington, is described in the secret minutes of the "Big Four" at Paris. Details of the debate were not available to the public until Woodrow Wilson turned over his personal records to Ray Stannard Baker.

Next Sunday's issue of THE DANVILLE REGISTER will contain the second installment of Mr. Baker's story of the Paris Peace Conference, dealing with the Disarmament Controversy as it was carried on by Wilson, Lloyd George, Clemenceau and Orlando.

"France stands for the same things that she stood for at Paris," writes Mr. Baker, "for she is France, and her position is inexorably dictated by her national interests and fears. So it is with the British Empire and Japan and Italy."

THE "ENDLESS" LINE

For the first time in nine years, the White House New Year reception was held by President and Mrs. Harding January 2. Members of the cabinet, government and military officials were received first. Then, for more than two hours the public moved through the mansion in a line three blocks long as you see above.

11 Paper Companies
Settle Wage Dispute
With Their Employees

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Settlement of the wage dispute between eleven large independent paper manufacturing companies and their employees was announced late today by a board of arbitration named to pass on the companies' proposals for a 25 per cent reduction.

F. L. Carls, president of the St. Regis Paper company and a member of the arbitration board, said the terms of the agreement meant an 8 cents an hour decrease for about 10,000 unskilled workers, but that there would be no change in the wages of some 5,000 skilled workers.

The new scale for unskilled workers, he said, will be 22 cents an hour, while the skilled men will continue to get 24 cents and upward.

The agreement is effective January 9, and will remain in force until May 1, he said.

On the final ballot the three representatives of the manufacturers voted in favor of the reductions and the labor representatives unanimously against them, the deciding vote being that of Judge Frank Irvine of Ithaca, as final arbiter.

Of the corporation's 50,000,000 shares of common stock carrying no par value, only 20,646,397 shares are outstanding. On these today's divi-

PROMINENT MEN ARE INDICTED IN DRY ENFORCEMENT

Bombshell Exploded in Federal Prohibition Quarters Yesterday.

Breaking of the seals on a secret indictment returned some weeks ago by the federal grand jury investigating enforcement of the federal act in this city revealed the fact that Harold L. Hart, a prominent litigation attorney who formerly served as federal prohibition director for the state of New York headed the list of a group of defendants charged with conspiracy to defraud the government through liquor withdrawals.

Immediately upon indictment, charged on poison liquor consumed during the holidays which today claimed its day, nineteenth victim, switched to the flood of real alcoholics which was alleged to have been loosed through putative fake drug concerns.

Indicted with Hart were two other high enforcement officials, three politicians and a number of "drug" conspirators and their allies. The list of defendants included:

Thomas Reddy, formerly allied with the postoffice department and department of justice and who later served as Hart's assistant before the latter's resignation last fall.

Michael J. Lynch, a clerk in Hart's office with a key to the cabinet containing the so-called numbered withdrawal permits.

William A. Orr, private secretary to Charles S. Whitman when the latter occupied the gubernatorial chair and now engaged in the insurance business.

Owen B. Murphy, treasurer of the Bronx county Democratic committee.

Thomas J. Duffy, Bronx politician. The indictment, returned after an investigation of several months followed complaints of lax enforcement of the Volstead act and frequent shifts in federal prohibition headquarters.

When Federal Judge Knox ordered the seals broken, it was found that the defendants had been charged with defrauding the government by using false and fraudulent withdrawal permits, whereby liquor exceeding vastly the amounts allowed by any one defendant for the compounding of drugs had been withdrawn. The offense, alleged to have involved wholesale quantities of liquor, ranks with a felony and upon conviction, the defendants would face three-year prison terms.

Arr. Lynch and Duffy appeared before Federal Judge Knox late today, and entering tentative plea of not guilty, were released in $5,000 bail each.

Counsel also entered not guilty pleas for the drug companies indicted.

Judge Knox granted a postponement until tomorrow in the arraignment of Reddy, Murphy and former Director Hart.

Johnson Cautions People to Study Treaty Carefully

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson, in a statement to Californians today said President Harding's strenuous construction of the quadruple alliance treaty is the most cogent reason for all of us to study every word and phrase before we commit our country to this unexpected and extraordinary contract.

The statement was issued in accordance with a suggestion that he endeavor "to interpret the concrete things that come out of the Washington conference on the limitation of armaments."

Senator Johnson said there was universal approval of the original purpose of the conference and substantial unanimity in the hope and desire that armaments would be limited. Any results, he said just to the participants, lessening armaments will be most cordially and enthusiastically welcomed.

"But," he continued, "because we favor disarmament and would make any sacrifice for peace, is no reason why we must accept anything which may be tendered us in the sacred name of peace, or under the guise of disarmament."

"Out of the secrecy of the conference has come, first, an unexpected treaty, unrelated to the original purpose of the gathering, and unconnected in reality with the limitation of armaments. The treaty is of transitory importance to California and of only less importance to the nation. It should be carefully and studiously studied, and its meaning should be thoroughly understood before we are irrevocably committed to it."

Senator Johnson said that Great Britain and Japan had an offensive and defensive alliance under which Great Britain's colonies were chafing at Japan's control of a continuous line of the empire, that apparently Japan intended, if it were to be abrogated, upon something as good "and got something better."

TO RESUME MUSCLE SHOWS NEGOTIATIONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Negotiations between the government and representatives of Henry Ford for the purchase and lease of the government's surplus and water power projects at Muscle Shoals, Ala., will be resumed January 11. J. W. Worthington, one of Mr. Ford's advisers in the negotiations, notified Secretary Weeks today that the Detroit manufacturer would be here in person on that date to renew the discussions or would authorize his engineers to carry the negotiations forward in the event he personally could not attend. It was said that Mr. Weeks would confer Saturday with C. C. Tanker, president of a San Francisco construction company, on an offer he was preparing for the Muscle Shoals property regardless of the Ford negotiations scheduled for the following week.

Trustee Named for Christian Scientist Publishing Company

BOSTON, Jan. 4.—Judge Crosby of the Supreme Court announced today that he would formally appoint Fred M. Lamson, vice president of the Old Colony Trust Company, of this city, and a Christian Scientist, as temporary trustee to take charge of the affairs of the Christian Science Publishing Society as soon as certain details as to his duties had been made. The trustee of the publishing society and the directors of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, had informed the court that they had agreed upon Mr. Lamson.

Judge Crosby decided that Mr. Lamson be designated as temporary trustee, rather than temporary receiver, as had been suggested by counsel for the trustees, but that he should be held responsible to the court and should not exercise powers given by Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy to the trustees under her deed of trust. He will hold his post until the court has determined after further hearings whether the directors acted in good faith in removing Herbert W. Eustace and Paul Harvey as trustees and has acted on various other matters before the court.

Counsel for John Dittmore, who is contesting his removal from the board of directors, also agreed to the appointment of Mr. Lamson.

In arguments before the court former Governor John L. Bates, for the directors, contended that the Supreme Court in its decree on the protected Christian Science litigation had held that the directors had the right to supervise the publication of all literature sent out for the benefit of the church and had control over the trustees. Judge Crosby said there was nothing in the decision given the trustees the right to exercise powers conferred upon the trustees under Mrs. Eddy's deed or to carry on the business of the publishing society.

Vote On Newberry Election Friday

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Senate factions today girded themselves for the final fight in the Ford-Newberry senatorial election contest from Michigan.

The case will be taken up Friday under an agreement reached before the Christmas recess and a vote on the resolution declaring Truman Newberry, the Republican incumbent, the legally elected senator, is expected next week. His colleague, Senator Townsend, Republican, Michigan, announced today that he would speak Saturday. Mr. Townsend also informed the Kalamazoo, Mich., League of Women Voters, he would support Mr. Newberry.

A close vote, with present indications of a vote favorable to Senator Newberry, is conceded generally by Senate leaders. Mr. Newberry's supporters expect a majority of from three to seven votes, although a half dozen Republicans still are listed as doubtful with their action said to depend in part on whether Senator Newberry decided to speak in his own right. Some Republican leaders were reported to have advised the senator against taking the floor in the Senate, while others were said to be urging that he address the Senate. Some of those friends of the senator said today they had assurances that he would come here and speak, probably next week.

Street Car Men To Refuse Cut

PETERSBURG, Va., Jan. 4.—A meeting of street car union men of Petersburg, Norfolk, Portsmouth and Richmond, held here this afternoon following a meeting held in the morning, resulted in an announcement following the meeting in which R. O. Trier, president of the Richmond union, said:

"We do not expect to strike. We will quit without any strike and just begin the operation of a bus line on our own account, that is if we have our pay cut even a penny. We have the charter to operate the bus line in the four cities. There will be no arbitration."

Sessions this afternoon were behind closed doors. The session adjourned to meet again on January 11, in conference with officials of the Virginia Railway and Power Company at Richmond.
